

3. Pension payment amount

- If the amount you choose is less than the minimum, we'll pay you the outstanding amount on the 30 June.
- If you have a pre-retirement account-based pension and the amount you choose is more than the maximum, your regular pension payments will stop when that maximum is reached for the financial year.

- Don't change my payment amount.
- A regular amount of $, Please note: this amount will be paid regularly, based on the payment frequency you select in section 4 below.
- An amount of $, per year. Please note: this includes any amounts you may have already received this financial year.
- The minimum annual amount based on the minimum pension withdrawal rates set by the government. You can find these rates on the MoneySmart website at moneysmart.gov.au.
- The maximum annual amount based on the maximum pension withdrawal rates set by the government (pre-retirement pension only).
- The pension payment owing for this financial year as a one-off payment. This payment will be made on your next regular payment date. Please go to question 5.

4. Pension payment frequency

I'd like my annual pension paid to me in regular payments every:

fortnight month quarter six months year

I want these payments to start in the following month:

Monthly, quarterly, six monthly and yearly payments are paid on the 15th of the month.
